

Printed
The Whole
Ceremoney
OF THE CORONATION OF HIS
Most Sacred Majesty King
GEORGE:
ON
Wednesday the Twentieth Day of OCTOBER, 1714.

---

By Order of W. HAWKINS Esq; Ulster King of Arms of all IRELAND.

---

DUBLIN:

Printed by J. Carston, at the Sign of King George in Fish-Shamble-Street, 1715.

---

I Do hereby Appoint
James Carson to Print
the following Ceremonial of the Coronation of
His Most Sacred Majesty
King GEORGE.

Will. Hawkins, Ulster
King of Arms of all IRELAND,

The Whole
CEREMONY
TO THE
Coronation, &c.

ABOUT Nine of the Clock in the Morning, His Majesty came privately to Westminster to the Court of Wards, where he put on his Robes.

The Peers pursuant to his Majesty's Orders, Published by the Earl Marshal, repaired to Westminster, either by Water or in Chairs; (no Coaches being permitted to pass through King-street) and Assembled in the House of Lords, and there put on their Robes, and took their Coronets in their Hands.

The Archbishops and Bishops did not come in the Procession with the Regalia from the Church of Westminster to the Hall, but assembled at the same time, and Vested themselves in their Rochets in the House of-Lords or adjacent Chambers.

The Privy Councillors not Peers, the Judges and others of the long Robe, together with the Gentlemen of the Privy Chamber, Esquires of the Body, Serjants at Law, the

the Attorney and Solliciter General, Masters in Chancery, Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Sheriffs of London, Chaplins having Dignities, and the Six Clerks in Chancery, met in the Court of Requests, about Eleven a Clock. By his Majesty's Command, the Earl Marshal Ordered the Officers of Arms to put the Proceſſion in Order, which they Marshall'd after the following Manner, by Conducting them down the great Stairs into Westminster Hall, where they were to stay in their Order, till the Proceeding moved, that is to say, by dividing themselves, and filing off on each side the Hall, in the inner sides of the Tables, next to the Cup-boards, the Youngest first, viz.

Three of the Six Clerks in Chancery, on one side of the Hall, and Three on the other, who are to go to the lower end of the Hall on either side. The Chaplins two and two, to divide the same way, and follow the Clerks.

Sheriffs and Aldermen of London.

Masters in Chancery.

The Kings Serjeants at Law.

Sollicitor and Attorney General.

The Kings Ancient Serjeants.

Esquires of the Body.

Gentlemen of the Privy Chamber.

Barons of the Exchequer, and Justices of both Benches.

L. Chief Baron of the Ex- — Lord Chief Justice of the chequer. Common Pleas.

Master of the Rolls. — L. Chief Justice of the Kings Bench Privy Councillors not Peers.

These all divided themselves on each side the Tables as aforesaid; in the mean time the Peers of Great Britain were called over in the House of Peers by Norroy King of Arms, and Marshall'd in the Painted Chamber, two and two, according to their several Classes, by Ulster King of Arms, and from thence Conducted by the other Officers of Arms, thro' the Courts of Requests, down the Great Stone Stairs into the middle of the Hall, as follows, viz.

A Pursuivant of Arms.

Barons,

Bishops

Bishops.

Two Pursuivants of Arms.

Viscounts.

A Herald of Arms.

Earls.

The Earl of Suffolk as exercising the Office of Earl Marshal of England.

Two Heralds of Arms

Marquisses.

Marquis of Lindsey, Lord Great Chamberlain of England.

Two Heralds of Arms

Dukes not having great Offices

Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord — Duke of Devonshire, Lord
Chamberlain of the Kings Steward of the Kings Household, Household.

Ulster King of Arms. ——— Norroy King of Arms.

Great Officers, viz.

Lord Privy Seal ——— Lord President of the Council.

Archbishop of York ——— Lord Chancellor

Archbishop of Canterbury,

Serjeants at Arms.

Lord Mayor of — Clarenceux King of — Gent. Usher of the London. Arms for Garter. Black Rod.

Lord High Steward of England with his White Staff.

The Persons representing the Dukes of Aquitain and Normandy, staid in the Painted Chamber, till they were called by the Heralds, and then they came down to the Hall, and stood at the Foot of the Steps, going up to the Kings Throne.

When the Peers Were all Come into the Hall, and Ranged two and two from the Stairs leading up to the Throne all along the Hall towards the Great Door, They opened to the Right and Left to make way for the Regalia that were brought from the Abby, by the Dean and Prebendaries of Westminster, Who were Vested in Surplices and Rich Copes, preceded by the Gentlemen of the Chapel and the Choir, they all waited at the lower End of the Hall
till the Swords were presented to his Majesty, the Lord Great

Great Chamberlain, the Lord High Constable and the Earl Marshall did not go down into the Hall, but stood above the Steeps, withoutside his Majesty's Table.

Then his Majesty in his Royal Robes of Crimson Velvet furr'd with Ermine, and bordered with Gold Lace, with his Cap of Estate of Crimson Velvet, turn'd up with Ermine on his Head, his Train bore by four Earls Eldest Sons, assisted by the Vice Chamberlain, instead of the Master of the Robes, ascended the Throne, being preceded by the Great Officers, the two Archbishops and his Highness the Prince, his Train bore and preceded by Garters Deputy between the Lord Mayor of London, and the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

His Majesty being seated, the Great Officers standing on each side of the Throne, the Master of the Jewel House attending with the other Officers there, with the four Swords and other Regalia, in his Custody, made his Obeisance; and first presented the Sword of State in a Rich Scabbard and Hangers to the Lord High Constable, who delivered it to the Lord Great Chamberlain, who making his Obeisance to his Majesty, laid it on the Table before him; next the Pointless Sword called Curtana; then the two Pointed Swords were severally presented after the same Manner, the Lord Great Chamberlain first drawing them, and returning the Three Scabbards to the Master of the Jewel House: In like manner were the great Golden Spurs presented.

Then the Dean and Prebendaries of Westminster proceeded from the lower end of the Hall, in manner following, viz.

First, the Serjeant of the Vestry with a Gilt Virge.

Children of the Choir.

Children of his Majesty's Chappel Royal in Scarlet Mantles

Choir of Westminster in Surplices

Gentlemen of the Chappel Royal in Scarlet Mantles.

Pursuants of Arms.

Heralds of Arms.

Usher King of Arms. ——— Norroy King of Arms.

The Dean of Westminster in a rich Cope, carrying the Bible

The Sub-Dean the Chalice.

A Prebendary the Patten.

A Prebendary St. Edwards Crown.

A Prebendary the Orb.

A Prebendary the Scepter with the Dove.

A Prebendary the Scepter with the Cross.

A Prebendary St. Edward's Staff.

Before they proceeded they all make an Obeisance, at the middle of the Hall they make a Second Obeisance; then the Choirs open to the Right and Left, thro' whom the Officers of Arms pass to the Foot of the Stairs, where they opened to the Right and Left and let the Dean and Prebendaries come directly to the foot of the Steps, the Officers of Arms and Choirs closing behind them; all make a Third Obeisance, and then the Dean and Prebendaries preceded by Garter's Deputy, went up the Stairs to the Table, and made another Obeisance, then the Dean of Westminster on his Knee, humbly presented the Bible to the Lord High Constable, who delivered it to the Lord great Chamberlain, who making an Obeisance to his Majesty, laid it on the Table before him; then the Prebendaries severally deliver'd the Regalia to the Dean, which were presented in the same manner the Bible was; which done the Dean, &c. retired to the lower end of the Hall, where they stayed till they were drawn out in the grand Procession. After which, Garter's Deputy, (by his Majesty's Command) summon'd up the several Noble Men designed before by his Majesty to carry the Regalia.

First, The Earl of Salisbury, standing before the Table.

The Lord great Chamberlain took up St. Edward's Staff, and making an humble Reverence, had his Majesty's Directions, to deliver it to the said Earl.

In like manner the Golden Spurs to the Lord Viscount Longueville.

The Scepter with the Cross to the Earl of Dorset.

The Third Sword to the Earl of Sutherland.

Curtana, to the Earl of Pembroke.

The Pointed Sword to the Earl of Lincoln.

The Sword of State in a rich Scabbard to the E. of Derby.

The Scepter with the Dove, to the Duke of Argyle.

The

The Orb to the Duke of Sumerſet!

St. Edwards Crown to the D. of Grafton, L. High Steward

The Patten to the Biſhop of Lichfield, and Croventry.

The Chalice to the Biſhop of Bangor.

The Bible to the Biſhop of Salisbury.

Laſtly, The Biſhop of Durham and Biſhop of Bath and Wells were ſummon'd up to ſupport the King, purſuant to their Claims allow'd.

The Barons of the Cinque Ports purſuant to their Claim, attended at the Foot of the Stairs of the Throne, ſupporting a Canopy, ready to receive his Maſteſty.

The Peers that carried the Regalia came down from the Throne, and placed themſelves juſt before the Canopy, and the two Perſons repreſenting the Dukes of Aquitain and Normandy, being ſent for by one of the Heralds, placed themſelves juſt before thoſe Peers.

Note, The Way from the Steps of the Throne in Westminster-Hall to the Choir, in Westminster-Abby was floor'd with Boards, and cover'd with Blew Cloath.

All things being thus diſpoſed in Order to the Grand Proceeding, about Half an Hour paſt Eleven of the Clock the Officers of Arms drew forth the ſame in the following Order,

The Grand Proceſſion.

FIRST, went the King's Herb-Woman, with Young Women ſtrawing Flowers.

The Deane Beadle of Westminster with his Staff.

The High Conſtable of Westminster with his Staff in a ſcarlet Cloak.

A Fife.

Drums.

The Drum Major in a rich ſcarlet Gold-lace Coat, and Gold ſash.

Four Trumpets.

Kettle Drum.

Four Trumpets.

John Shore Eſq; Serjeant Trumpet, in a rich Gold-lace Tippers, ward

coat, and Gold Sash, carrying his Mace on his Shoulder.
The Six Clerks in Chancery, in Gowns of Black Flower-d Sattin with Black Silk Loops and Tuffs upon the Sleeves
Two and Two.

and
it to Chaplain, Keeper of the Chappel Royal.
Chaplains having Dignities, in Scarlet and Black Silk Tippets, with Square Caps in their Hands, two and two.
Sheriffs, Aldermen, and Recorder of London, in their Scarlet Gowns; those above the Chair wearing their Gold Chains, two and two.

the
and
and em-
Masters in Chancery in rich Gowns.
The Kings Younger Serjeants at Law, in Scarlet Gowns
and Caps in their Hands.

The Kings Solicitor. — The Kings Attorney.

The King's Ancient Serjeants.

Esquires of the Body.

Gentlemen of the Privy Chamber.

and lock ing
Barrons of the Exchequer, and Justices of both Benches, in their Judges Robes of Scarlet, with their Caps in their Hands.

Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer, and Lord Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, in Scarlet Robes, with their Collars of Ss. Gilt.

Master of the Rolls — Lord Chief Justice of the Kings in a rich Gown. Bench in a Scarlet Robe, his Coller of Ss. Gilt.

Children of the Choir of Westminster in Surplices.

Serjeant of the Vestry & Serjeant Porter in Scarlet Gowns.

Children of the Chapel Royal in Surplices with Scarlet Mantles over them.

Choir of Westminster in Surplices.

The Organ Blower. — The Grome of the Vestry.

A Sack But. — A Double Curtel. — A Sack But

Gentlemen of the Kings Chapel in Scarlet Mantles

Sub-Dean of the Kings Chapel, in a Scarlet Gown turn'd up with Black Velvet: Prebendaries of Westminster
in Surplices and rich Copes, with Caps in their Hands.

The Dean of Westminster in a rich Cope.

The Master of the Jewel-House, in a Scarlet Robe.

B

Privy

Privy Councillors not Peers, in rich Habits,
Thomas Whirwick Portcullis. --- Dudley Down Rouge dragon.
 Borons in their Robes of Estate, their Coronets and Caps in their Hands.

|                           |                          |
|---------------------------|--------------------------|
| Lord Carleton.            | Lord Pierrepoint         |
| Lord Harborough           | Lord Saunderston         |
| Lord Bingley              | Lord Bathurst            |
| Lord Foley                | Lord Masham              |
| Lord Lansdown             | Lord Trevor              |
| Lord Middleton            | Lord Montjoy             |
| Lord Hay                  | Lord Boyle               |
| Lord Harcourt             | Lord Ballenden           |
| Lord Bielhaven            | Lord Halkerton           |
| Lord Forrester            | Lord Jedburgh            |
| Lord Conway               | Lord Bernard             |
| Lord Sommers              | Lord Havertham           |
| Lord Herbert of Cherbury. | Lord Butler of Weston    |
| Lord Ashburnham           | Lord Gilford             |
| Lord Strawell             | Lord Carteret            |
| Lord Bekely of Straton    | Lord Colepeper           |
| Lord Byron                | Lord Leigh               |
| Lord Bruce                | Lord Compton             |
| Lord St. John of Blettho  | Lord North and Gray      |
| Lord Howard of Effingham  | Lord Willoughby of Broke |
| Lord Fitz-Walter          | Lord Dela War.           |

Bishops in their Rochets, With Square Caps in their Hands.

|                                  |                             |
|----------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| Frances L. Bishop of Chester     | George L. Bishop of Bristol |
| Frances L. Bp. of Rochester      | Adam L. Bp. of St. David's  |
| Philip L. Bp. of Hereford        | Charles L. Bp. of Norwich   |
| William L. Bp. of Lincoln        | William L. Bp. of Oxford    |
| Richard L. Bp. of Peterborough   | Gilbert L. Bp. of Sarum     |
| Sir Jonathan L. B. of Winchester | John L. Bishop of London    |
| John Dugdale Mowbray.            |                             |

Viscounts in their Robes of Estate, their Coronets and Caps in their Hands.

|                       |                    |
|-----------------------|--------------------|
| Viscount Bollingbroke | Viscount Newhaven  |
| Viscount Kilsyth      | Viscount Irwin     |
| Viscount Talkland     | Viscount Townshend |

Viscount Hereford.

John

John Heskett, Lancaster. — Robert Dale, Suffolk.

Earls in their Robes of Estate, with their Coronets and Caps in their Hands, except such as carry any of the Regalia; and all such Peers as are Knights of the Garter, or St. Andrew, wore the Collers of the Order.

|                                |                           |
|--------------------------------|---------------------------|
| Earl of Clare                  | Earl of Bristol           |
| Earl of Aylesford              | Earl of Halifax           |
| Earl of Tankerville            | Earl of Rockingham        |
| Earl of Uxbridge               | E. of Oxford and Mortimer |
| Earl of Islay                  | Earl of Delorain          |
| Earl of Hopton                 | Earl of Portmore          |
| Earl of Srair                  | Earl of Orkney            |
| Earl of Dunmore                | Earl of Dunbarton         |
| Earl of Dundonald              | Earl of Forfar            |
| Earl of Sil Kirk               | Earl of Leven             |
| E. of Findlater and Seafield   | Earl of Wemyss            |
| Earl of Loudoun                | Earl of Buchan            |
| Earl of Rothes                 | Earl of Mar               |
| Earl Marishall                 | Earl of Cholmondely       |
| Earl of Godolphin              | Earl of Poulet            |
| Earl of Grantham               | Earl of Orford            |
| Earl of Rochford               | Earl of Bradford          |
| Earl of Watrinton              | Earl of Scarborough       |
| Earl of Portland               | Earl of Stafford          |
| Earl of Plymouth               | Earl of Holderness        |
| Earl of Abington               | Earl of Rochester         |
| Earl of Yarmouth               | Earl of Radnor            |
| Earl of Suffex                 | Earl of Anglesey          |
| Earl of Clarindon              | Earl of Scarisdale        |
| Earl of Sunderland             | Earl of Stainford         |
| Earl of Peterbrow and Monmouth | Earl of Manchester        |
| Earl of Westmerland            | Earl of Denbigh           |
| Earl of Northampton            | Earl of Leicester         |
| Earl of Bridgwater             | Earl of Exeter            |

John Hare Richmond — Lawrence Crompton York.

Marquisses in their Robes of Estate, their Coronets and Caps in their Hands.

Marquis of Amundael — Marquis of Dorchester

Peers Mauduit Windsor — Charles Mawson Chester

Dukes

Dukes in their Robes of Estate, their Coronets and Caps in their Hands.

|                                 |                     |
|---------------------------------|---------------------|
| Duke of Kent                    | Duke of Roxburgh    |
| Duke of Montrose                | Duke of Athol       |
| Duke of Argyle                  | Duke of Montague    |
| Duke of Rutland                 | Duke of Marlborough |
| Duke of Leeds                   | Duke of Schonbergh  |
| Duke of Bolton                  | Duke of St. Albans  |
| Duke of Northumberland          | Duke of Ormonde     |
| Duke of Grafton                 | Duke of Richmond    |
| Duke of Clevecland and Southron | Duke of Somerset    |

|                                   |                           |
|-----------------------------------|---------------------------|
| Duke of Shrewsbury                | — Duke of Devonshire Lord |
| Lord Chamberlain of the Household | Steward of the Household. |

|                          |                             |
|--------------------------|-----------------------------|
| William Hawking's Ulster | — Peter le Neve Noirey King |
| King of Arms.            | of Arms.                    |

With their Coats Collers of SS. and Jewels, their Coronets and Caps in their Hands.

|                           |                                 |
|---------------------------|---------------------------------|
| Thomas Earl of Wharson, — | Daniel Earl of Nottingham, Lord |
| Lord Privy Seal.          | President of the Council.       |

|                             |                                         |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------------|
| Sir William Dawkins Baronet | — William Lord Cowper                   |
| Lord Arch Bishop of York.   | Lord High Chancellor bearing his Purse. |

Dr. Thomas Tennison Lord Arch Bishop of Canterbury.

Sir James Clark and Sir Jonathan Andrews, representing the Dukes of Aquitain and Normandy, in crimson Velvet Mantles, lined with White Sarcenet, and faced with Miniver, powdered with Ermine, each having his Hat in his Hand of cloath of Gold, Furr'd and Powdered with Ermine.

|                                                     |                                                           |                                                         |
|-----------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------|
| St Edward's Staffborn by the Eof Salisbury. | The Golden Spursby the Lord Vis-count Longuevill. | The Scepter withthe Cross by theEarl of Dorset. |
|-----------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------|

|                                                  |                                     |                                               |
|--------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|
| The third swordby the Earl ofSutherland. | Curtana by the Earlof Pembroke. | The pointedSword by the E.of Lincoln. |
|--------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|

The

Cap

The Lord Mayor of London, bearing
the City Mace
in a Gown of Crimson Velvet,
wearing his Collar and Jewel.
Sir Samuel Stainer
Knight.

Sir John Vanbrugh
Kt. Clarenceux K.
of Arms for Garter, wearing his Coat. Collor and Jewel, his Coro-
net in his Hand.

The Gent. Usher
of the Black Rod,
in a crimson sat-
tin Gown with the Gross of St. George
on the Breasts, the Black Rod in his Hand.
Sir William Oldes, Knight.

Lord
House

Robert Marquis of Lindsey, Lord Great Chamberlain of England in his Robes of Estate, with his Coronet and Cap, and White Staff in his Hand.

King

onets

Lord

wpen

ellon

Serjants of Arms.

His Royal Highness the Prince of W A L E S in his Robes of Estate of Crimson Velvet, furr'd with Ermin, by his Majesty's Permission, his Train supported by Agustus Schatz and Adolphus
Oughton Esqs; the two Eldest Grooms of his Royal Highnesses Bedchamber, assisted by Henry Kil-
legrew Esq; Gentleman of his Royal Highness's Robes, His Royal Highness having his Cap and Coronet in his Hand, and Wearing a like Cap of Crimson Velvet, turn'd up with Ermine.

Serjants of Arms.

ting

elver

Mini

his

with

with

y the

et.

ted

E.

The

The

The Earl of Suffolk
as E. Marshal of Eng- land, in his Robes
of Estate, his Coronet and Cap, and Earl Marshal's staff
in his Hand.

The sword of state in the Scabbard, born
by the Earl of
Darby.

The Duke of Mon-
tague, Lord High Constable of Eng-
land, in his Robes
of Estate, his Staff, Coronet and Cap in his Hand,

The Scepter with the Dove, born
by the Duke of Argyle.

St. Edward's Crown
born by the Duke
of Grafton, Lord
High Steward.

The Orb born by
the Duke of Sommerfet.

The Patten by the Bishop of Lich-
field and Coventry.

The Bible by the Bishop of Salis- bury.

The Chalice by the Bishop of Bangor.

The

The Canopy born by the Barons of the Cinque-Ports, in Scarlet Gowns

Band of Gent. Penfioners.

Serjeants of Arms.

The KING in His Royal Robes of Grimfon Velvet Furr'd with Ermine, and Bordered with Gold Lace
thereon, the collers of the Orders of St. George and St.
Andrew, wearing on His Head a Cap of Estate of Crimfon Velvet, turn'd up with Ermine, under a Canopy of Cloath of Gold.

Supported by the Bishop of Bangor.

Serjeants of Arms.

Band of Gent. Penfioners.

His Majesty's Train born by Four Noblemen Eldest Sons, viz.

The Lord Walden, the Lord Manderwille, the Lord
Rialton, and Lord Deisford, assisted by the King's Vice Chamberlain in the Absence of the Master of the Robes.

Standard Bearer to the Band of Penfioners.

*William L. Par-
get and Burton*,
Captain of the Yeomen of the Guard.

The Captain of His Majesty's Horse Guard in Waiting.

Duke of St. *Al-
bans*, Captain of the Band of Gentlemen Pensioners.

A Gentleman of his Majesty's Bedchamber.

Two Grooms of the Bedchamber.

Ensign of the Yeoman
of the Guard.

Lieutenant of the Yeoman
of the Guard.

The Corporals
or Exempt.

The Yeomen of the Guard with Parrizans on their Shoulders.

The Corporals
or Exempt.

The Clerk of Cheque to the Yeomen of the Guard.

The

The Enterance into the ABBY.

THE Drums and Trumpets went to their Station, over the Door of the Entrance into the Choir.

As soon as the King came into the West Door, he was receiv'd by the Dean and Prebendaries Singing an Anthem Psalm 122. v. 1. 4. 5. 6. and 7.

The Nobility and others that were in the Proceeding, being Enter'd, the Choir repair'd to their Several Seats prepared for them, viz. The Six Clerks having ascended the steps of the Theatre, Divided themselves as they did in the Hall, and go to their places in the Galleries, on Either side of the Choir to the West End of the Benches, and Stand before their Seats, as all others do till his Majesty pass'd by, and was Seated in his Chair before the Throne, then his Majestys Chaplains, Aldermen of London, Masters in Chancery, Serjeants at Law, Judges, Privy Councillors and peers, ascended the steps of the Theatre, and dividing to the right and left, took their Places also, on each side of the Choir, the foremost going towards the West Part of the Gallery: The Prebends ascending the Theatre went to their Stations on the South side of the Alter, beyond the Kings Chair, the Serjeant Porter and Serjeant of the Vestry to the North side of the Alter: The Childeren of the Chapel Royal, the Choir of Westminster and the Gentlemen of the Chapel, when the Anthem was Ended, did not Enter the Choir, but went to their Gallery's on the side of the Choir, Except such as had a Gallery near the High Alter where they sung the Anthems appointed for the Coronation Ceremony.

The Barons, Bishops and other Classes of the Nobility, pass'd by the Kings Throne, and were conducted by the Officers of Arms to the seats appointed for them, on the South side of the Theater.

After which the Bishop of Rochester as Dean of Westminster the Great Officers and two Arch Bishops, the Persons representing the Duke of Aquitain and Normandy, those that carry the Regalia and Swords, and his Royal Highness the Prince Prince ascended the Theatre, and stood near the Great South East Pillar untill the King was seated.

Note, Her Royal Highness sat just behind the Prince, and with her the two Young Princesses.

Then the King ascended the Theatre, and Passed by the South side of the Throne to the Chair of State, on the East side of the Theater, near the steps of the Throne, where he made an humble Adoration, Kneeling down on the Faldstool just before the Chair, and us'd some private Devotion, then arose, and sat himself in his Chair, were being Seated the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Great Chamberlain, the Lord High Constable, the Earl Marshal with the two Bishops who Supported his Majesty, the Dean of Westminster, and the Lords who carried the Regalia and Swords with Garters Deputy, between the Lord Mayor of London and Gentelman Usher of the Black Rod, all stood about his Majesty, the two Bishops on either side, the Lords who carried the Swords, on the Right hand, and the Lord Great Chamberlain on the left.

All being thus placed, all the Officers of Arms, except Garters Deputy went to their Places at the four Great Pillars.

The Recognition.

HIS Majesty being so placed, the Arch Bishop of Canterbury turn'd towards the East Part of the Theatre, the King standing up, and facing the same Way, the Arch Bishop With a loud Voice spake thus to the People,

S I R S,

I present unto you King GEORGE, King of this Realm, Wherefore all you Who are Come this Day to do your Homage and service are you willing to do the same.

The People signified their willingness and Joy by loud Acclamations saying,

God Save King GEORGE.

Than

Then the Archbishop of Canterbury, accompanied with the Lord Chancellor, Lord Great Chamberlain, Lord High Constable and Earl Marshal; Garters Deputy going before them, went to the South side of the Theatre, his Majesty turning his Face that Way, and repeated the same Words, and after to the North in like manner, the King still turning himself that Way, and at each time, the People made loud Acclamations, and at the last the Trumpets sounded.

This being done, a full Anthem Psalm 89. v. 14. and 5. was sung, the King reposing himself in his Chair.

While the Anthem was singing, the Archbishop went down, and before the Altar, put on His Cope, and went to the North side of the Altar, the Bishops that were to Sing the Gloss, did also Vest themselves, and the Officers of the Wardrobe &c. Spread Carpets and Cushions, on the Floor and steps of the Altar.

The King Supported by the two Bishops attended by the Dean of Westminster, and the Lords who carry the Regalia, went up to the Altar.

The Oblation:

THE N the King put on his Cap of Estate, and Kneeled down: Then the Master of the Great Wardrobe, delivered a Pall, or Alter Cloath of Gold, to the Lord Great Chamberlain, who Kneeling, delivered it to His Majesty, and he Offered it.

Then the Earl of Cholmondeley, Treasurer of the Household, delivered a Wedge of Gold, of a Pound Weight to the Lord Great Chamberlain, who Kneeling delivered it to the King, which His Majesty likewise Offer'd: The Archbishop, assisted by the Dean of Westminster, received them standing from His Majesty, and laid them reverently on the Altar. Then the Arch Bishop saith this Prayer, O God who Dwest, &c.

The Lords who carried the Regalia, came in Order, near to the Altar, and presented every one to the Archbishop what he carried, and he to the Dean of Westminster, to be placed placed upon the Altar, viz. The Bible, St. Edward's Crown and the Orb, the Scepter with the Dove, the Spurs, the Scepter with the Cross, and St. Edward's Staff; and the Lords who carried them retired to their respective Seats among the Peers.

The Dukes of Aquitain and Normandy, and the Great Officers, viz. the Duke of Glouster Lord High Steward, William Lord Cuyper Lord High Chancellor, Daniel Earl of Nottingham Lord President of the Council, and Thomas Earl of Wharton Lord Privy Seal; Together with the Duke of Montague Lord High Constable, and the Earl of Suffolk as Earl Marishal, did repair to their Seats on the South side of the Area, behind his Majesty's Chair.

The Lords who carried the Swords stood on the King's Right Hand, the Lord Great Chamberlain on his left Hand, and on each side a Bishop.

The Litany.

HIS Majesty Kneeling at the Faldstool, the Litany was Read, the Choir singing the Responses: After the Prayers, Communion Service, &c. His Majesty stood up.

The Sermon.

THE Bishop of Oxford went up to the Pulpit, by the North East Pillar of the Theatre, taking his Text out of Psalm 118. v. 24, 25.

During which time, the King sat very attentively in his Chair, on the South side of the Area, with his Cap of Estate on, the Lords who carried the Swords, stood all the while on his Right Hand, the Lord Great Chamberlain on his left Hand, and on each side a Bishop: The Archbishop of Canterbury sat on a Purple Velvet Chair, on the North side of the Area, and the Bishops on Forms; on the North side of the Area, and near the Archbishop stood Garter's Deputy, and several of the King's Servants, who attended to do service, and near the Pulpit stood the Lord Mayor of London, and Master of the Jewel House.

Between

Between the Great South East Pillar of the Theatre, and the next Pillar Eastward, late Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and behind them the Two Young Princesses, and between them and the Altar stood the Dean and Prebendaries of Westminster.

The OATH.

SERMON ended, the Archbishop Ministreth to the King the Declaration, or Test, which he having taken and Subscribed : His Majesty rose out of his Chair, supported by the two Bishops, assisted by the Lord Great Chamberlain, and the Sword of State carried before him, went to the Altar, and Kneeled on the Steps, the Archbishop said,

Sir, Are you willing to take the Oath usuall taken by your Predecessors.

The King answered, " I am Willing."

Then the Archbishop Ministred the following Questions, the King having a Book in his Hand, answers a follows.

Archbishop, Sir, Will you Grant and Keep, and by your Oath Confirm to the People of England, the Laws and Customs to them Granted by the Kings of England, Your Lawful and Religious Predecessors, and Namely, the Laws, Customs and Franchises Granted to the Clergy, by the Glorious King St. Edward, Your Predecessor, according to the Laws of God, the True Profession of the Gospel Established in this Kingdom, and agreeing to the Prerogatives of the Kings thereof, and the Ancient Customs of this Realm.

King, " I Grant and Promise to keep them.

Archbishop, Sir, Will You keep Peace and Godly Agreement entirely according to your Power, to the Holy Church, the Clergy, and the People.

King, " I Will keep it.

Archbishop, Sir, Will You to Your Power, cause Law, Justice and Discretion in Mercy and Truth, to be Executed in all Your Judgments.

King, " I Will.

Archbishop,

Archbishop, Sir, Will You Grant to Hold and Keep the Rightful Customs which the Commonality of this Your Kingdom have, and will You Defend and uphold them, to the Honour of God so much as in You lieth.

King, " I Grant and Promise so to do.

Then the Petition or Request of the Bishops to the King was Read by the Bishop of ——— in the Name of the Rest, standing by: Our Lord and King, We Beseech You to Pardon Us, and to Grant and Preserve unto Us, and the Churches committed to our Charge, all Canonical Privileges, and due Law and Justice, and that You will Protect and Defend Us, as every Good King in His Kingdom ought to be Protector and Defender of the Bishops and Churches under their Government.

The King Answered, with a willing and Devout Heart, " Promise and Grant you my Pardon, and that I will Preserve and Maintain to you, and the Churches committed to your Charge, all Canonical Priviledges, and due Law and Justice, and that I will be your Protector and Defender to my Power, by the Assistance of God, as every Good King in His Kingdom ought in Right to Protect and Defend the Bishops and Churches, under their Government.

Then the King said, " The Things which I have here Promised, I will Perform and Keep, So help me God and the Contents of this Book.

Then the King Kissed the Book.

Then his Majesty returned to his Chair, and Kneeling down at the Faldstool, while the Choir sung, Veni Creator Spiritus.

The Anointing.

THEN the Archbishop Prayed, We beseech thee O Lord, &c. Archbishop, The Lord be with you.

Respons. And with thy Spirit, &c

Archbp. It is very meet, right, and our bounden Duty, &c

The Preface being ended, the Choir sung an Anthem, Zadock the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet Anointed Solomon King. And in the mean time his Majesty arose from his Devotion, and went to the Altar, supported as before, and and was by the Lord Great Chamberlain disrobed of his Mantle of Crimson Velvet, and Surcoat of the same, which were carried to the Kings Traverse in St. Edward's Chapel, then his Majesty seated himself in St. Edward's Chair, wherein he was Anointed by the Archbishop, the Dean of Westminster holding the Ampulla and Spoon, Four Knights of the Garter holding a rich Pall over his Majesty.

Then the Archbishop Anointed his Majesty on the Palms of his Hands, in Form of the Cross, saying, Be these Hands Anointed with Holy Oyl

Secondly, On the Breast, saying, Be these Breasts, &c.

Thirdly, On and between the Shoulders, saying, Be these Shoulders Anointed, &c.

Fourthly, On the bending of both Arms, saying, Be these Arms Anointed, &c.

Lastly, On the Crown of the Head, saying, Be this Head Anointed with Holy Oyl, as Kings and Prophets were Anointed, and as Solomon was Anointed King by Zadock the Priest, &c.

Then the Dean of Westminster laid the Ampulla and Spoon upon the Altar; the Archbishop on the North side thereof, said this Prayer, the King kneeling at the Faldstool, God the Son of God, &c.

The Prayer being ended, the King sat in his Chair, the Dean of Westminster wiped the Places Anointed with Fine Wooll delivered him by the Lord Great Chamberlain, who also gave to the Archbishop a Coif and Gloves, which he put on the Kings Head and Hands, and while he was doing of it, the Choir sung an Anthem, Psalm 84. v. 9, 12, 13.

The Investing.

First, Collobium Sindonis, which the Dean of Westminster brought from the Altar, and put upon the King, saying this Prayer, O God the King of Kings, &c.

Secondly, The Supertunica, or close Pall of Cloath of Gold, and Girdle of the same, which he likewise put on.

Thirdly, The Buskins and Sandels of the same.

Fourthly, The Golden Spurs, which the Dean of Westminster took off the Altar and delivered to the Lord Great Chamberlain, who kneeling down, touch'd them to the Kings

Kings Heel, and delivered them again to the Dean, who laid them on the Altar.

Fifthly. The Earl Derby, who carried the Sword of State, returned it to the Officer of the Jewel House, who deposited it in the Traverse in St. Edward's Chappel, and he received thence in lieu thereof, another Sword, in a Scabbard of Purple Velvet, provided for the King to be girt withal, which he delivered to the Archbishop, and laid it on the Altar, saying the following Prayer, Hear our Prayers we beseech thee O Lord, &c.

Then the Archbishop, assisted by the Bishops, took the Sword off the Altar, and delivered it into the King's Right Hand, saying, Receive this Kingly Sword, delivered unto Thee by the Hands of the Bishops, &c.

The King standing up delivered it to the Lord Great Chamberlain, who girt His Majesty therewith: Then the King sitting down, the Archbishop said, Remember of whom the Psalmist did Prophecy, when he said, "Gird thee with thy Sword upon thy Thigh, O thou Most Mighty, &c."

Sixthly, The Armil which the Archbishop took from the Master of the great Wardrobe, (the King standing up) and put it about his Majestys Neck, and tied it to his Arms above and below his Elbows; saying, Receive this Armil as a Token of Divine Mercy, &c.

Seventhly and Lastly, The Mantle of Cloath of Gold and Purple Brocaded, lined with Crimson Taffata, was by the Master of the great Wardrobe delivered to the Dean, and by him put upon the King standing; then the King sat down, and the Dean bringing the Orb from the Altar, gave it to the Archbishop, who delivered it into the Kings Right Hand, and said, Receive this Pall and Orb, and Remember that the whole World is Subject to the Power and Empire of G O D, &c.

The Crowning.

THE Archbishop took St. Edward's Crown into his Hands, and laying it again before him upon the Altar, said this

this Prayer, the King kneeling at his Faldstool, O God
the Crown of the faithful Bless us Beseech thee, &c.

Then the King Sitting Down in St. Edward's Chair, the Archbishop, came from the Altar with the Crown between his hands, assisted by the Dean and the other Bishops, and put it on the Kings Head, at which the People with loud Acclamations and repeated Shouts, Cried,

God Save King G E O R G E.

The Trumpets in the Church, the mean while sounded a Charge, and then the Drums without beat a Point of War, and a signal being Given, One and Twenty Great Guns in the Park were fired, which were answer'd by a Round of Sixty one Great Guns at the Tower, and they by severall Ships in the River.

The Acclamations ceased, the Archbishop said Two Prayers, viz.

First, O God Crown thee with a Crown of Fortitude and honour &c.

Secondly, O Eternall God, King of Kings, Fountain of all Authority and Power, Bless we beseech thee, this thy servant, Who in lowly Devotion boweth his head unto the Divine Majesty &c.

At which Words the King bowed his Head.

Then the Archbishop read the Comfortare, Be strong and of Good Courage, observe the Commandments of God, &c.

After which the Choir sung an Anthem, Psalm 147. v.
12. Isa. 49. v. 23. Psalm 48. v. 7. Psalm 21. v. 13 While the Anthem was singing, the King Deliver'd the Orb to the Dean of Westminster, who laid it on the Altar, then the King went from the Chair to the Altar where his Sword was ungirt, and Offer'd by his Majesty in the Scabbard, but was Immediately Redeem'd by the Earl of Derby, for An Hundred Shillings, Who then Drew it, and bore it Naked before his Majesty during the rest of the Solemnity.

The Anthem being sung, all the Peers put on their Coronets.

The two Persons representing the Dukes of Aquitain and Normandy Put on their Hats of Estate.

And the Kings of Arms, viz. Clarencieux, Norroy, and Ulster, put on their Coronets.

The

The Investiture.

Per Annulum & Baculum.

THE King came from the Altar and sat in his Chair, the Master of the Jewel House delivered a Ring of a Table Ruby with the Cross of St. George Engraved in it, to the Archbishop, the King drawing off his Linnen Gloves, the Archbishop put it on the Fourth Finger of the King's Right hand, saying, Receive the Ring of Kingly Dignity and the Seal of Catholick Faith, that as thou art this Day Consecrated Head and Prince of this Kingdom, and People, &c.

Then the Lord Howard of Effingham, pursuant to a Claim as Lord of the Manner of Workshop in Nottingham-shire, presented the King with a Rich Glove, which the King put on his Right Hand, the Lord Howard supported his Arm, then the Archbishop took the Scepter with the Cross, and put it into the Kings Right Hand, saying, Receive this Scepter, the Ensign of Kingly Power and Justice.

At which time the Lord Howard of Effingham, pursuant to his Claim, did support the Kings Right Arm, and also held the Scepter, whenever his Majesty had a mind to Ease himself of it.

After which, the Archbishop delivered the Scepter with the Dove into the Kings Left Hand, saying, Receive the Rod of Equity and Mercy, &c.

The Te Deum and Benediction.

THE King being Anointed, Invested, and Crowned, went towards the Alter, with both the Scepters in his Hands, and Kneeling on the Steps, delivered the Scepter with the Cross to the Lord Howard of Effingham, and the Scepter with the Dove to ———. Then the Dean of Westminster took the Holy Bible from off the Altar, and delivered it to the Archbishop, who with the rest of the Bishops going along with him, presented it to the King. First, saying these Words, " Our Gracious King, Thus faith

saith the Lord of Old to his peculiar People, Deut. 17. 18.
He then Received the Bible again and laid it on the Altar.

The King still kneeling took the Scepters into his Hands,
 the Archbishop Blessed him saying,

The Lord Bless thee, and keep thee, and may all the Blessings of Heaven and Earth descend upon thee, Amen.

The Lord Give thee of the Dew of Heaven, and of the Fatness of the Earth, Amen.

In thy Days may Justice Flourish, and Righteousness look down from Heaven, Amen.

The Lord Prosper thy Life, and establish thy Throne, Amen.

The Glorious Majesty of the Lord our God be upon Thee, Amen.

All the Bishops and Peers that stood about him, concluded
 Every part of the Blessing with an Hearty, Amen.

Then the Archbishop turn'd to the People and Blessed them saying,

“ And the same Good Lord Grant that the Clergy, and “ Nobles gathered together this Day, according to his Or“ dinance, for this Great and solemn Service, &c.

Then the King arose and seated himself in St. Edwards
 Chair and kissed the Archbishops and Bishops, they kneeling before him one after another.

Then the King having the four Swords Carried before him, went and Seated himself in his Chair on the Theatre before the steps of the Throne, While the Choir sung the Te Deum.

The Inthroning & Homage

WHEN the Te Deum was ended, the King being lifted up by the Archbishop and Bishops ascended the D the

the Throne, the Peers who Carried the Swords stood on each hand of him.

The King being seated on the Throne, the Archbishop standing before him, said, stand firm and hold fast from henceforth that Place of Royal Dignity, &c.

The Exortation being ended, all the Peers did their Homage, first the Archbishop of Canterbury kneeling before his Majesty's Knees ( the other Bishops doing the like behind and about him ) did his Homage saying,

I T H O M A S, Archbishop of Canterbury,
will be Faithfull and True ; and Faith and Truth
will bear unto You our Sovereign Lord, and your Heirs Kings of England, and I will do, and truly Acknowledge the Service of the Lands which I Claim to hold of You
as in Right of the Church.

So help me God.

Then he arose and kissed the Kings Left Cheek, and after him the Rest of the Bishops did the like and retired.

Then his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, kneeling before his Majesty, put off his Coronet, and did Homage, saying,

I G E O R G E Prince of WALES, do become
Your Liege Man of Life and Limb, and of Earthly Worship, and Faith and Truth I will bear unto you, to Live and Die against all manner of Folks.

So help me God.

In Like manner the First Duke, viz. Charles Duke of Somerset, having a Paper containing the Words of the Homage, ascended the steps, and being followed by the rest of the Dukes took off his Coronet (which the other Dukes Likewise did) they all kneeling down, he said for himself and the rest of the Dukes.

I CHARLES Duke of Somerset, do become your Lieg Man, &c.

In like manner each Class of the Peers did Homage severally.

While the Peers were doing their Homage, Hugh Earl Chalmondely Lord Treasurer of the Household, preceded by Ulster King of Arms, threw Silver Medals among the People from each side of the Theatre.

The Peers having done their Homage, First the Prince, then each Class of the Peers in their Order, every Peer One by One, putting off their Coronets, singly ascended the Throne again, and stretched forth their Right Hand and touched the Crown on his Majesty's Head, as promising by that Ceremony, to be ever ready to support it, with all their Power; and then every one Kissed the Kings Left Cheek, and were Kissed by him.

The Final Anthem.

WHILE the Lords were performing their Homage, the Choir sung this Anthem, with several sorts of Instrumental Musick, as a Solemn Conclusion of the Coronation, Psalm 84 v. 11, 12. Psalm 20. v. 6. Psalm 21. v. 27. Psalm 20. v. 9. Psalm 22. v. 18.

At the end of the Anthem, the Drums Beat, and Trumpets Sounded, and all the People Shouted, Crying,

*God Save King George, Long Live King George,
May the King Live for Ever.*

The

The Communion.

THE Offertory begun, the Choir singing the first Sentence. "Let your Light so shine, &c."

Archbishop Reads, Charge them that are Rich in the World, &c.

Then the Choir sung, Let my Prayers come unto thee O Incence, &c.

In the mean time, the King supported and attended as before, descended from the Throne, and went to the Steps of the Altar, and Kneeled down.

Then there was brought out of King Edward's Chapel Bread on the Patten, by the Bishop that Read the Epistle and Wine in the Chalice, by the Bishop that read the Gospel, which the King Offered, and the Archbishop reverently received, and placed upon the Altar, and decently covering it with a Linnen Cloath, said this Prayer; Blas Lord, we beseech thee these thy Gifts, &c.

The Second Oblation.

THEN the King Kneeling, Offered a Mark Weight, viz Eight Ounces of Gold, which the Treasurer of the Household delivered to the Lord Great Chamberlain, and he to his Majesty, from whom the Archbishop received it into a Bason, and placing it on the Altar, repeated the Collect used at the First Oblation: Then the King returned to his Chair, and Kneeled at the Faldstool, the Archbishop said, Let us Pray for the whole State, &c.

"You that do truly and Earnestly Repent, &c.

Archbishop, Lift up your Hearts.

Answer, We lift them up unto thee, O Lord.

After followed, We do not presume, &c. and the Prayer of Consecration.

When the Archbishop, the Dean of Westminster, and the Bishops Assistants had Communicated, the Archbishop Administred the Bread, and the Dean of Westminster the Cup

Cup to the King : The Bishops assisting, held a fine Towel before the King while he Received.

The Communion ended, the King returned to the Throne on the Theatre, while the Choir sung, Glory to God on High, &c.

Then the Archbishop read the final Prayers, Assist us Mercifully O Lord, in these our Supplications, &c.

The Recess.

THE Coronation and Communion being ended, the King attended as before, descended from the Throne, Crowned, and carrying his Scepter and Rod in his Hands, went down into the Area Eastward of the Theatre, and as they passed by the Altar, the Regalia lying on it, were re-delivered by the Dean of Westminster to the Lords that brought them in the Procession, to be again born before his Majesty, and so they Proceeded in State into King Edward's Chapel, the Organs playing all the while.

The King being come into the Chapel, and standing before the Altar, took off his Royal Imperial Crown, and delivered it to the Archbishop, who laid it upon the Altar, and the rest of the Regalia were given into the Hands of the Dean of Westminster, and by him laid there also.

Then the King withdrew himself, into the Traverse prepared for him upon the Western Wall of the Chapel, where he was disrobed by the Lord Great Chamberlain &c. of his Royal Robes of State, which was delivered to the Dean to be laid upon the Altar, and was immediately arrayed arrayed with his Purple Robe of Velvet furr'd with Ermine, which he wore the Rest of the Day, and was before laid ready in the Traverse for that Purpose: When the King was thus Habited, he came out of his Traverse, and stood before the Altar, the Archbishop setting the Crown of State provided for the King, and laid ready upon the Altar, to be worn by him the Rest of the Solemnity upon his Head, that being done, the Archbishop, the Dean of Westminster and the two Bishops Assitants, Who Read in the Litany, devested themselves of their Copes, and left them there, and Proceeded in their usual Habits.

Then the King took his Scepter with the Cross in his Right Hand, and the Orb in his Left, the four Swords and Rod with the Dove born before him. The Lord Howard of Effingham, Supporting his Arm, the Heralds putting the Rest of the Procession in Order, the King came out of St. Edwards Chapel, assisted and attended, and his Train born as before, and passed over the Theatre by the south side of the Throne, and so thro' the Choir in the same Manner as he came to the Church, saying that the Peers who in that Procession Carried any of the Regalia, which are now left behind in the Church, as the Spurs and St. Edwards Staff, or which the King now Wears or bears himself, as the Orb and Scepter with the Cross, went now in their Respective Places in the Proceeding, according to their severall Degrees, and was

was Received by the Barons of the Cinque Ports, under his Canopy at the Door of the Choir, all the Peers having on their Coronets, the Bishops their Caps, the Dukes of Aquitain and Normandy their Hats of Estate, and the Kings of Arms their Crowns: So this Glorious Assembly proceeded through the Body of the Church, out of the Great West Door, and went the same way back to Westminster Hall; the Prebendaries and Choir did not go back in the Procession.

Westminster-Hall.

THE Proceeding being come to Westminster Hall, the Flse and Drums divide on Each side without the Hall Door, the Trumpets entered the Hall and went up to their Gallery over the Door at the Lower End of the Hall, and the Proceeding were Placed by the Officers of Arms, at the several Tables, appointed for them.

The Great Officers and those Representing the Dukes of Aquitain and Normandy stood on Each side, near the Throne, till his Majesty passed by, and as he Ascended the steps of the Throne, the Barons of the Cinque Ports took away the Canopy being their Fee.

His Majesty being Ascended the Throne, together with the Prince, retired to the Court of Wards, till the hot Meat was ready to be brought on the Table, then they came into the Hall, and delivered the Scepter and Orb to two Lord's appointed pointed to hold them, who bore them on Each side his Majesty viz. The Scepter on the Right Hand, and the Orb on the Left, the Lords with the four Swords bore them Erect on the Kings Right Hand ; his Majesty Washed in this Manner.

The Lord Great Chamberlain, preceded by a Gentleman Usher and followed by an Earl, assisted by two other Lords, went to the Cupboard and from thence brought the Basin and Ewer to his Majesty, the Cup-bearer pouring out the Water while his Majesty washed his Hands, and the two Assistants held the Towel, in Right of Sir Peter Soame Baronet, Lord of the Mannor of Heydon in Essex, His Majesty having wash'd, Seated himself in a Chair of State at the Table, and his Royal Highness the Prince seated himself in a Chair, on the Kings Left Hand, at the end of the Table, and was Served by his own Servants, Two of his Majesty's Esquires of the Body, sat at his Majestys Feet on two Footstools, untill the King ordered them to Depart.

The Peers being Seated at the Tables on the West side of the Hall, the Privy Councillors, Judges, and others of the long Robe, the Lord Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Sheriffs of London, at the Tables on the East side of the Hall, and the Kings of Arms, Heralds and Pursuivants, went to their Table, on the same side at the lower end of the Hall.

Serving

Serving the First Course.

THE Lords Sewer's went to the Dresser of the Kitching, where, ——— Master of the Horle to his Majesty, as Serjeant of the Silver Scullery, called for a Dish of Meat, Wiped the bottom of the Dish, and likewise the Cover within and without, and took Essay of the Dish, and then Cover'd it, and deliver'd it, and the rest of the Hot Meat to the Gentlemen Pensioners who Carried it to the Kings Table in Manner following.

First, Two Clerks Comptrollers in Velvet Gowns, trim'd very Rich, with Black Silk, and Gold Lace and Buttons, and Velvet Caps in their Hands.

Two Clerks of the Green Cloath, in the same Habit.

Master of the Household.

Cofferer of the Household.

Six Serjeants at Arms with their Maces, two and two.

The Three Great Officers in their Robes of Estate, their Coronets on, and mounted on Horses, richly Trapped, viz.

E

The

Serving

The Earl of
Suffolk as Earl Marshal of Eng land, with the Marshals Staff
of Gold Ena meled at the end with Black

The Duke of
Grafton Lord
High Steward,
with his white
Staff,

The Duke of
Montague Lord
High Consta
ble of England
with his Con stables Staff.

Six Serjeants at Arms, with their Maces, two and two.

Hugh Boscawen Esq; Comptroler of his Majesty's Household,
with his White Staff.

The Earl of *Chel
mondely*, Treasur
of his Majesty's Hou
hold with his White
Staff.

Assistant to the Kings Sewer, wearing his Robes and Coronet.

The King's Sewer,
wearing his Robes and Coronet.

Then the Several Dishes of Hot Meat, brought up by the Gentlemen Pensioners, bareheaded and were placed on the Table by ——— Carver, with the help of the Lord ——— the Sewer,
and the Lord ——— his Assistant.

Then the Mells of Dillegront was brought up to the Kings Table by ——— in Right of his Claim of Lord of the Manner of Addington in Surrey.

The

The two Clerks of the Kitchen in Black Figured Gowns of Sattin, and black Velvet Caps in their Hands:

Grace was said by the Bishop of London.

Soon after Dinner was begun, the Right Honorable Hildebrand, Lord Allington of the Kingdom of Ireland, in pursuance of his Claim of the Manner of Wimendley in the County of Hereford, brought to his Majesty the first Cup of Drink, in a Silver Cup Gilt, which he presented him on his Knee, of which having Drank, delivered him the Cup, and he Received it as his Fee.

Serving the Second Course.

Before the Second Course Lewis Dimock Esq; the Kings Champion, in pursuance of his Claim as Lord of the Manner of Scrivelshy, in Lincolnshire, Entered the Hall, Compleatly Arm'd, in one of his Majesty best Suits of White Armour, Mounted on a White Horse Richly Caparison'd in Manner following,

Two Trumpets with the Champions Arms on their Banners.

The Serjeant Trumpet with his Mace on his Shoulder.

Two Serjeants at Arms with their Maces.

The Champions two Esqs; one on the Right Hand with the Champions Lance Carried upright; the other on the Left Hand with his Target, the Champions Arms depicted thereon.

Charles

Charles Mawson Esq; Chester Herald, with Paper in his Hand Containing the words of the Challenge.

|                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                              |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| The Earl ofSuffolk as EarlMarshal, in hisRobes and Co-foned on Horseback and Mar-shals Staff inhis Hand. | The Champi-on Lewis Dy-mock Esq; onHorieback, aGauntlet onhis Right Hand,a Plumb ofWhite Blue andRed Fethers inhis Helmet. | The Duke ofMontague Lt.high Conitablein his Robesand Coronetwith the Con-stables Staff inhis Hand. |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Four Pages richly Apparell'd; attended the Champion.

At the lower end of the Hall the Trumpets sounded thrice, then the Officer of Arms Commanding Silence, Proclaimed the Champion Challenge, viz.

IF any Person of what Degree soever, High or Low, shall deny or gainsay our Sovereign Lord George, King of Great Britain, France, and Ireland Defender of the Faith, to be Rightful and Lawful King of Great Britain, or that he ought not of Right to Enjoy the Imperial Crown of this Realm, Here is the Champion that saith he Lieth, and is a false Traytor, being ready in Person to Combat with him, and in this Quarrel will adventure his Life, on what Day soever
he shall Appoint.

Then

Then the Champion threw down his Gauntlet where having lain some time, Chester Herald took it up and dilivered it to the Champion.

Then they advanced to the middle of the Hall, and did the like.

Lastly, They came to the Steps of the Throne, Chester Herald went to the top of the Steps, and Proclaimed the Challenge as before, the King standing up.

The Champion having received his Gauntlet from the Herald, put it on, and made a low Obeisance to his Majesty.

Then the Lord ——— Cupbearer, with his Assistants, brought a Gold Cup of Wine cover'd, and presented it to the King, who Drank to the Champion, and sent the Cup of Wine by the said Lord Cupbearer to him, who having Drank thereof made a low Obeisance to his Majesty, and returned in the same manner as he came, carrying with him the Cup and Cover as his Fee, as Lord of the Mannor of Scriegelsby in the County of Lincolnshire.

The Champion being retired out of the Hall, Peter le Neve Esq; Norroy King of Arms, accompanied by William Hawkins Esq; Ulster King of Arms, with their Coronets on, together with the Heralds and Pursuivants, went from their Table where they Dined, to the lower end of the Hall, where putting themselves in order, the King of Arms first, they all made their Obeisance to his Majesty, and from thence advanced

to

to the middle of the Hall, and did the like, and then proceeded to the botom of the Steps going up to the Throne, and made a third Reverence; then all did ascend the Steps, Norroy and Ulster went to the side of the Table facing the King, the other Officers behind them, all made an Obeisance to his Majesty, and Norroy having thrice Cryed Largess, Proclaimes his Majestys Stile as follows,

Serenissimi, Potenti fimi et Excellen<sup>ti</sup> fimi Morarcha, Georgij Dei Gratia, Magna, Britannie, France et Hibernie Regis, Fidei Defensoris Brunswicensium, et Lunenburgensium Ducis sacri Romani Imperij Archi The<sup>s</sup>aurarij et Principis Electoris.

Then all the Officers of Arms made an Obeisance

DU tres haut, tres Puissant, et tres Excellent, Monarque, George, par la Grace de Dieu, Roy de la Grande Britaigne, France, et Ireland, Defenseur de la Foy, Duc de Brunswick et Lunenburgh, Arch-Tresorier de l' Empire Romain, et Prince Ele<sup>ct</sup>eur.

Then all the Officers of Arms made another Obeisance.

OF the most High, most Mighty, and most Excellent Monarch, GEORGE, by the Grace of God, King of Great Britain, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, Duke of Brunswick and Lunenburgh, Arch-Treasurer of the Roman Empire, and Prince Elector,

Then

Then the Officers of Arms all Cry'd Largess thrice, and making their Obeisance Retired backwards, keeping their Faces towards the Throne; and when they Came to the Middle of the Hall, they all Cryed Largess thrice.

Then Norroy King of Arms proclaimed his Majesty's Stile as before, and retired.

Then the Second Course was brought up.

When it was set on ——— Ryder Esq; for the Manner of Nether Blessington in Kent, presented on his knee to his Majesty, three Maple Cups, and the Mayor of Oxford who was Knighted that Day by his Majesty, and Burgessees being then introduced, by the Lord Cupbearer to his Majesty, he said Lord by his Majesty's Command delivered to the Mayor the three Maple Cups, as their Fee, in Right of their Claim.

Then the Lord Mayor of London, attended by the Aldermen, Sheriffs and Twelve Principall Citizens, in Pursuance of their Claim to be assistant to the Chief Butler of England presented to his Majesty a Gold Cup of Wine with a Cover, and the King having Drank thereof gave the Cup and Cover to the Lord Mayor as his Fee.

His Majesty having Dined, Water was brought to him, and he Washed with the same Solemnity as before Dinner. Grace being said, his Majesty look

took the Scepter and Orb, the four Swords and Scepter with the Dove, being Carried before him he retired into the Court of Wards, where part of the Regalia were delivered to the Dean of Westminster, and the Rest to the Master of the Jewel House, and from thence his Majesty departed privately to his Palace at St. James's.

The Days Solemnity was Concluded with Bonfires Illuminations, and Ringing of Bells, with the Inexpressible Joy of all true Protestants.

FINIS.

His Majesty having Dined, Water was brought to him, and he Walked with the same Solemnity before Dinner. Grace being said, his Majesty

ords and before
, where the Dea r of the depart

Ronefurn
the mo

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W

W